

KIM P. NUCKLES- WV EEO Director

As the EEO director, Nuckles will work to ensure the state's compliance with equal employment laws and practices to prevent workplace harassment and discrimination; conduct outreach through training, literature, and materials; and collaborate with various other agencies and organizations to promote diversity and inclusion.

As the State ADA Coordinator, Ms. Nuckles' responsibilities include advising, consulting, and collaborating with state and federal agencies to develop comprehensive policies and programs to assure compliance with the federal ADA. She is also tasked with assisting state supervisory personnel with reasonable accommodation issues in the workplace.

Within state government, Ms. Nuckles serves in various capacities on the Access to Justice Subcommittee through the West Virginia State Bar, Cultural Facilities and Capitol Resources Grant Committee, Olmstead Council, Capitol Evacuation Team, Capitol Closed Point of Dispensing (CPOD) Committee, West Virginia Access and Functional Needs workgroup through the Center for Threat Preparedness and the National Federation for the Blind. She is also a member of the Leadership Network through the Mid-Atlantic ADA Center. Ms. Nuckles was appointed chair of the Governor's Committee for the Purchase of Commodities and Services from the Handicapped-on October 14, 2014.

A native of Benwood, West Virginia, Ms. Nuckles is a 2001 graduate of the West Virginia University College of Law and a 1997 graduate of Wheeling Jesuit University.
